

INFORMATION BEFORE SEEING DR ROSY DANIEL BSc MBBCh REGENERATIVE HEALTH CONSULTANT

Thank you for your interest in seeing Dr Rosy Daniel in Bath. Dr Daniel offers holistic health services to promote health, well-being and quality of life for her clients. She works with people with cancer, heart disease, diabetes, arthritis, depression and obesity to create regenerative health programmes that will improve medical outcomes, quality of life, coping skills and a positive mental attitude. Dr Daniel can work with you in person, by telephone or skype, depending on your preference. Bookings are made online on her www.drrosydaniel.org website through her Setmore calendar.

What Dr Daniel offers

Dr Rosy Daniel will:

- Support you through your reaction to diagnosis, helping you to set up your support network at home.
- Help you understand your condition and medical treatment options on offer to help you choose what is absolutely right for you.
- Help you to integrate safely orthodox and complementary approaches
- Help you to minimise the side effects of treatment through the use of complementary medicines.
- Help you to review your self-help therapeutic options.
- Create an individualised self-help programme with you built around your unique circumstances and needs to help you regain your strength, health, and peace of mind.
- Start you on a proactive Health Creation Programme with telephone Mentor support, to get you feeling strong and back in charge of your health and happiness.

The Consultation

The consultation can be face to face in Bath or by telephone or skype if you are unable to make the journey. Rosy sees clients in person at: The Weston Chiropractic and Holistic Therapy Centre, Apthorp, Weston Road, Bath BA1 2XT

The number for telephone consultations is 01225-315501 (but please do not leave messages on this line.)
Rosy's contact for Skype appointments is rosy.daniel1

During the initial consultation, which lasts for 60 minutes, Dr Daniel will:

- Take your personal history,
- Give you medical counselling to enable you to get the best of all worlds, medical, therapeutic and self-help
- Explain and explore your options for your personalised programme

After your session Rosy will write up and send you your programme providing you with:

- Relevant advice or explanations about your medical treatment and any second opinions suggested
- Recommendations for the proposed therapy, support, self-help, nutritional supplements for you and guidelines for the low-acid wholefood diet
- Information about receiving support from a Health Creation Mentor

To book an appointment go to 'Make a Booking' on Rosy's website drrosydaniel.org or if you need more help, please leave Rosy a message on 01225 745737.

Fees The fee for the initial appointment is £190 which includes the writing up of a personalised report after the consultation; a thirty minute follow up is £95; and fifteen-minute phone-ins are £50.

Please send any helpful medical results and a photo of yourself to email rosy@drrosydaniel.org

Payment We will usually take card payment for consultations on the day of the appointment. Debit Cards and Credit Cards are both accepted. We are not able to accept American Express cards.

Evidence for Holistic Healthcare

You will find research evidence for holistic healthcare on the website of the Health and Wellbeing Trust at www.health-e-learning.org.uk. Dr Daniel also recommends the website of Dr Dean Ornish at the Preventive Medicine Research Institute in the USA – www.pmri.org. A review of the effects of the herbal remedy Artemisinin can be found at: <https://www.hindawi.com/journals/bmri/2012/247597/>.

After your appointment

Dr Daniel will send you a comprehensive report to make sure that you are confident about your next steps and are happy about the service that you have received.

Follow-up appointments and phone-ins

After the consultation you will be invited to make 30 minute follow up appointments so that Dr Daniel can support you and fine tune your programme over time as required. In between appointments, you may book a 15-minute Phone-in slot via Dr Daniel's to discuss any new issues needing urgent help. Rosy does not consult via e-mail and this should be used purely for sending reports.

Audit and Feedback

Dr Daniel performs audits on her service from time to time to assess the quality and helpfulness of her service. You may be asked to complete audit questionnaires to help us evaluate and improve our service. You will also be invited to give feedback directly to Dr Daniel after your session or anonymously on a feedback form which will be provided to you after your consultation.

Cancellations

We are very sensitive to your medical needs and will re-schedule your appointment if cancelled due to a medical emergency. For all other cancellations we require a minimum of 24 hours' notification. Please note that without this level of notice we will have to charge you for the missed appointment. Dr Daniel has a waiting list with sufficient notice, this allows us to give other people the opportunity to come sooner.

Professional Qualifications and Validation

Dr Daniel is qualified medically and has a first-class BSc degree in Physiology. She is registered and validated with the General Medical Council, Reg number 2829308.

Please be aware of the boundaries of Dr Daniel's role...

Dr Daniel will provide holistic health advice based on your particular circumstances to help you form your personalised self-help programme. Thereafter, she will follow your progress closely and work with you over time to find all possible ways of improving your health, energy and well-being. Dr Daniel is not an oncologist (cancer specialist) and will not take on the medical treatment of cancer or other illnesses nor the prescribing of medication, responsibility for which remains with your medical team at home. Your medical screening and investigation of any new symptoms must also be arranged through your existing medical team too. The progress of your health promotion work with Rosy can then be assessed against your routine medical scans and tests.

Dr Daniel does not provide an emergency out of hours' service and your acute medical needs must always be taken to your GP or hospital consultant. She will, however, be your health advocate, empowering you to get the very best of all health options, orthodox, complementary, psycho-spiritual and self-help. Dr Daniel does not routinely write to your doctors about your consultation and self-help programme out of respect for your privacy and confidentiality in this sensitive matter. However, she is happy to do so at your request if this would be helpful.

Travel and Accommodation

The Apthorp Centre, Weston, Bath is next door to the very luxurious Priory Hotel who offer tea, coffee and snacks on a drop-in basis and meals in their Pantry or full restaurant if booked in advance. Please find directions to Apthorp House from its website. www.apthorpcentre.com. The centre has its own car-park.

For those needing B + B accommodation the nearby Marlborough House in Bath is good and provides vegetarian and vegan food - 01225-318175. Up-market accommodation is available at the excellent Priory Hotel, the Royal Crescent Hotel and Bath Spa Hotel. Many other possibilities can be found on the website: www.visitbath.co.uk.

Preparing for your consultation if you have cancer

You may wish to prepare for your consultation with:-

1. The Picture of Health – holistic assessment tool to work out your starting place in your self-help programme. You will find this on the health Creation website at www.healthcreation.co.uk in the Personal section of the shop.
2. Rosy's book 'The Cancer Directory' – Price £16.99 from Amazon
3. Rosy's full self-help kit 'The Cancer Lifeline Kit' – Price £125 plus VAT and postage. Please order from the Health Creation website shop.

The Cancer Lifeline Kit includes:

- Three workbooks for the time of diagnosis and treatment; for your recovery journey; for your carers
- Three self-help CDs to help you cope with treatment positively, learn relaxation, imaging, relaxation and meditation.
- Jane Sen's healthy recipe cards
- An inspiring 'Message of Hope' DVD.
- We recommend that you engage Mentorship support to work through this pack so that you can be guided, supported and motivated to make all the positive steps you need to get you strong, positive, fit and healthy again.

Pre-Consultation preparation for those with other conditions

If you do not have cancer, we recommend that you do the Picture of Health self-assessment exercise to form a good basis for discussion of your current health, lifestyles and the problems you are currently experiencing. This can also be done online at www.healthcreation.co.uk.
